PRESIDENT'S REPORT FOR 2023/2024

Our Annual Goulburn Workers Club Art Prize was held at the Workers Club on the long weekend of the 29th September till 2nd October 2023. It included 223 art works and we sold 14 paintings all up. We had lots of visitors but unfortunately not that many buyers. Hopefully this year will be better.

We have had many wonderful workshops during the last year, 2023: October 21st/22nd - Grace Paleg, Still life; November 11th/12th - Ev Hales, Landscapes in Watercolour; November 25th/26th - Pauline Adair, The Nude in Drawing & Watercolour; December 1st - Helen De Jonge, Introduction to Watercolour. In 2024, January 13th/14th - Tony Belobrajdick, Graphite Wash and Watercolour; February 10th/11th - Mark Poisson, Pastels, Acrylic and Oils; March 23rd/24th - Chan Dissanayake, Watercolour; April 6th - Helen De Jonge, Introduction to Pen & Wash; April 13th/14th - Peter Wells, Acrylic & Watercolour Pencil; May 3rd/4th - Grace Paleg, Pastels.

17th February, Mulwaree Library held a Hobbies Expo; Sue Maas & I represented the GDAS.

I would like to thank:

Susan Harris, our Vice President and Workshop Coordinator, for the wonderful workshops she organised; thank you Susan.

Sue Maas, for both Secretary and Membership Secretary, thank you Sue.

Susan Pearson, Treasurer, thank you for dealing with the Council and everything else you do.

Julia Laybutt, Minutes Secretary, thank you, Julia, for the wonderful job you do.

Katya & Alex Mortensen, thank you both for a fantastic News Letter; Katya, thank you for work as Webmaster and digital as well.

Marg Parry, thank you for going to the radio and organising the adds to go on the air as well, this is very important to put our name out there.

And thank you to all the members for your support during the last year.
Helen De Jonge.

EDITORIAL

With 15 members in attendance at our AGM on Sunday 21 July, we saw the uncontested election of the executive, committee and the various other important positions for 2024/25. I am sure that GDAS members will not be surprised to see the same people in mostly the same positions but as there were no other nominations, this is what happens. Of course, these members have all done a good job in their various roles and will continue to do so. It would be appreciated if all members offer support whenever they can do so. We do need someone to step up to the vacancy of Assistant Treasurer and it is hoped to see such an offer in the near future. Please contact the president, secretary or treasurer if you are interested in doing this job. Our treasurer, Susan Pearson, will ensure you are made familiar with what you would need to do.

The light lunch was enjoyed by the AGM attendees and there were so many sandwiches that the GWC provided "doggie boxes" for us to take some home.

On 19 July, a number of our members and some guests travelled out to have lunch at The Loaded Dog Hotel, Tarago. This was organised by Sue Maas. For those of us who haven't dined there before, we were very pleasantly surprised at the generous servings of the meals selected from the extensive menu and at very reasonable prices. It was a good social occasion for all who participated and we recommend The Loaded Dog to other members and readers. The hotel walls are well decorated with some of our members' paintings all of which are for sale. These are seen and bought not only by the "regulars" but also people passing through Tarago and stopping off for refreshments.

Please help to make our GDAS newsletter a relevant and interesting one by submitting items and photographs especially of your art and of your visits to other art societies, galleries and so on. Just a few written lines will be sufficient – unless you wish to write more.

Alex Mortensen

RECOVERING WELL

Members have been delighted to see Susan Harris and Marcia Ronning in the past week. VP Susan Harris is up and about although currently with the aid of a "walker". Marcia, Bryce's wife, is fully mobile. They have said that most of the pain has gone and are grateful they had their operations. They both made it to the Tarago lunch and Susan was also at the AGM.

I think that congratulations are in order for both of these wonderful ladies.

NEW MEMBERS

At the July meeting the committee were pleased to welcome as new members Gail Davies, Julie Madden and Margaret Raptus. We trust that you will take part in our various activities as often as you are able to do. This includes our regular Thursday painting days, workshops and meetings.
