President's Report to the AGM

The last year has been a very productive year for the Art Society with two very successful exhibitions: the Annual Works Club Art Prize, at which we sold 12 paintings and The Roses exhibition, held at the new venue in the Veolia Arena, in which we sold 14 paintings and had lots of people come through. We also have had 7 wonderful workshops in the last year including Pen and Wash with Helen De Jonge, Nell Anderson with watercolour, 2 days acrylic with Helen Cottle, 2 days watercolour with Chan Dissanayake, acrylic with Marion Schumacher, Pastel with Tracey Millar and in July watercolour with Isla Patterson. Also on the first Saturday of each month Life Drawing with our models Katya and Alex Mortensen, thank you both for the wonderful opportunity to do this.

This year the Art Society moved into a new room here at the Angels for the Forgotten building that we hire for Thursdays and Saturdays. Unfortunately we are not able to leave anything in the room as it is used for other events. I am hoping this will change in the next year and we will have moved into our permanent home in the new Community Centre, which is now the Council depot.

I would like to thank all the committee members who helped during the previous year:

Vice President and Editor, Alex Mortensen for his wonderful newsletters and keeping us informed.

Our Secretary, Lesley Whitten, for her hard work and enthusiasm, especially with the main exhibition.

Treasurer Alan Whitten, for keeping us financial.

Minutes Secretary, Julia Laybutt - great job Julia.

Webmaster, Ekaterina Mortensen, for the wonderful job she does.

And Patricia Mueller for putting posts on Facebook.

Happy painting,
Helen

MEMBERS, GOOD NEWS IS COMING!

We are currently in consultation with council to secure a permanent home. At last week's council meeting a motion was passed and accepted by council to not sell the Bourke St Council Depot premises. Cr Peter Walker and myself viewed the site prior to the council meeting.

These premises will be renovated and become a community centre.

We are looking at a large portion that council used for stores, complete with bathroom, kitchen and plenty of room for workshops and storage. The site will be used by GDAS exclusively.

The executive committee will view these premises as soon as possible.

Cheers Lesley

Membership Benefits

- Far cheaper entry fees in the annual exhibition ($15/entry for non-members)
- Very cheap entry fee for the Rose Festival exhibition
- Cheaper fees for workshops
- Free untutored sessions, eg life drawing
- Use of our current art room on Thursdays and Saturdays
- Good company of members with whom you can paint and discuss art ideas
- In the near future the wonderful benefits of our new and permanent home - we have looked forward to this for so many years: weeklong access, larger spaces, our own facilities, studio and exhibition space, storage. It's exciting to think about!

ANNUAL FEES - OVERDUE

$30 per annum.
You can still pay.

Why Pay $25 or even $15 for a Life Drawing Session?

Your Goulburn & District Art Society provides these sessions FREE, yes that is FREE - FREE - FREE to its members - on 4 occasions so far this year, namely on the first Saturday of the month 10am to 1pm. Elsewhere you may pay $15 or $25 for a 2 hour session.

How can you participate in these sessions? Just be a GDAS member at just $30 per annum. Look at the saving you will make by joining the GDAS. You'll be well in front by just attending one or two of these sessions. While untutored you will still be given some guidance if needed.

Make the most of it by coming along. If you know of other artists and aspiring artists interested in life drawing invite them to join so they, too, can enjoy these benefits.

If you would like to join the small team who model free of charge to members please let us know so that you can be allocated a date for modelling. It's a good way of learning to model if you have never done it before. Just contact the vice president.

There are also other cost saving benefits of membership. (See Membership & Benefits item on page 2).

Next Life Drawing sessions are on:

Saturdays 1st September, 6th October Free to members. Bring A4 or larger sketch book or sheet paper and easel. You'll find 6B or softer pencils are useful. Charcoal is great to use. Sessions in following months will be advised in future newsletters.

"Well, usually when the model dies the life drawing class is over."

The August Life Drawing Session

Seven members were at our session on Saturday, 4th August plus our female model who provided us with basic and challenging poses to keep us on our toes. While doing the introductory one minute sketches we gathered behind Stavros to observe his expertise in producing a coloured pencil sketch. He then did the same again but took longer to more carefully explain the process. Thank you very much, Stavros, as this sharing of skills is most valuable and is what we can do in any of our untutored sessions.

It was pleasing to see the quality of the drawings that participants produced - even with a first timer at life drawing. Of course we all enjoyed the session. It gives us encouragement to continue with these free to members life drawing sessions.

Why do the models, who are members of GDAS, do it free? It's because we believe that members of our art society should get some benefits without having to dip into their pockets making it affordable for all of us. As well we are sharing something that we can do with the members and we know that they are appreciative and respectful.

From the Editor

I am pleased that I have again been elected as Editor - it is a role that I really enjoy. Thank you very much for all the time you spend on it, Katya, with your skills in the layout and various intricacies that are beyond my computer skills. Thank you, Julia, for sharing your photos of your exciting tour to the Kimberleys - wonderful "food" for the artistic mind. Again I invite members to share with us their experiences, especially art experiences, such as visits to galleries and workshops. Simply send brief information and photos to me at alexgamort@gmail or to the secretary or give information to me at the art room.

We have an exciting year ahead with the fantastic news in regard to a new home for us. It's what we have waited for many decades to happen so I trust that all members will really make the most of it.

Alex Mortensen, Editor

“ People discuss my art and pretend to understand as if it were necessary to understand, when it's simply necessary to love.

Julia's Holiday to the Kimberley

Julia told us of the very enjoyable cruise along the coast, the delicious meals including one with the captain, the exciting helicopter flight and of course we can see a little of the magical scenery that must have given her much artistic inspiration. It would be a wonderful place to visit.

Watercolour Workshop with Isla Patterson on 28 July

A busy, enjoyable and productive day.

Our Sponsors

The GDAS has numerous sponsors who give us a variety of forms of sponsorship that is of great assistance to the running of our organisation. We thank them all.

Important When Using the Art Room

On Thursdays and Saturdays members will have to set up the folding tables and move chairs for use. They MUST be placed back where you got them from before you depart. Each member must assist with this. You will need to bring your own tea/coffee/sugar/milk and mug for making your cuppas as they are not provided in this room or kitchenette. Also make sure you leave the sink area clean and tidy. Thanks for your cooperation.

GETTING READY: Lesley and Helen with one of the new banners for our annual October exhibition. They are printed on vinyl to be hung on busy roads to attract more visitors.

Around the Traps

President Helen and Secretary Lesley are galivanting off to their Grampian Brushes for an arty weekend on 8-9th September. They should come back with even more art ideas.

Welcome to new member

We offer a hearty welcome to artist, Victoria Wright. We trust that we will see you at our meetings, painting days and exhibitions, Victoria.

Workshop Art & Annual Exhibition

This is a reminder to members and other entrants to the Goulburn Workers Club Annual Art Prize.

Do not enter works that were done by you in a workshop.

You should also be aware of copyright laws in regard to using the works of others - this includes the use of other people's photographs as the subject of your paintings.
