PRESIDENT WRITES

Hello Everyone,

The Exhibition Committee members have been meeting once a month and are organising everything so that our exhibition on 18th to 20th October at the Goulburn Workers Club will run smoothly. The Judge will be Tony Belobrajdic; I will be in contact with him as time gets closer. Tony is happy to be judging our exhibition this year, which is great. It is good to have someone this early in the year organised.

Donald and I had a wonderful week driving to Mount Barker in South Australia and meeting up with friends who we have known for 45 years. Mount Barker is very near Hahndorf and The Cedars where Hans Heysen, one of Australia's famous artists, lived. To me it was one of the highlights of our journey. We came back via Victoria, seeing some of the painted silos. I will write an article about the trip in the next newsletter.

Happy painting,
Helen

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

SUNDAY 21ST JULY, 2024 at 12 noon
AT THE GOULBURN WORKERS CLUB

A light lunch will be provided following the meeting.

We trust there will be many members at the meeting.

EDITORIAL

The May meeting saw 8 members attend and some 15 apologies. Katya and I were 2 of the latter as we had friends come from Melbourne to visit us. It was the first meeting for some time that we didn't have new member applications to approve. We wish Susan Harris a speedy recovery after her back operation. We hope to see many GDAS members at the AGM and numerous nominations for positions.

Alex Mortensen

AGM NOTICE

It is time once again for us all to consider the office-bearer and committee positions for our Art Society. The positions for the financial year 2024/25 will be decided at our upcoming AGM at 12 midday Sunday 21st July, 2024 in the Goulburn Workers Club. Any organisation is best served when responsibility is shared and does not fall on the same people year after year. With that in mind, I encourage you to nominate or think about whom you would like to nominate for the positions listed on the front page of this newsletter.

Most positions are self-explanatory; however, an explanation of Committee Members might be helpful. It is a GDAS constitutional requirement to choose a Committee of 7 people out of which a quorum of 5 make organisational decisions. 4 of those Committee Members are required to be the President, the Vice President, the Secretary and the Treasurer. Therefore only 3 extra members are needed to make up the 7. When nominating Committee Members, being mindful of the important function they hold, please choose people who are willing to attend meetings regularly.

Please also note that our current Vice President and Workshop Coordinator, Susan Harris, will not be recontesting these or any other positions.

Nomination forms were sent by emails and can be downloaded from our website.

Sue Maas, Secretary GDAS

Extract from our Constitution:

14 Composition of committee

(1) The committee must have 7 members, as elected in accordance with clause 15, consisting of:

(a) the following office-bearers:

- (i) the president,
- (ii) the vice-president,
- (iii) the secretary,
- (iv) the treasurer, and

(b) at least 3 ordinary committee members.

Note - The Act, section 28 contains requirements relating to membership eligibility and composition of the committee.

(2) An office-bearer may hold up to 2 offices, other than both the offices of president and vice-president.

NOTICE OF MOTION

Notice is hereby given that the next meeting of GDAS will be held at 10am on Thursday, June 13th, 2024, at The Art Studio, 2 Bourke St, Goulburn.

Please note that at today's meeting (May 9th, 2024), it was proposed to increase our membership fees by $10.00/year from $30.00 to $40.00.

Members should be aware that membership fees have not risen for many years. As a result of rising CPI and to bring us into line with similar Art Societies in this region, it was proposed to make this small increase.

As a consequence, a formal motion will be put at the June meeting as follows:

"That the membership fees of GDAS be increased to $40.00 per annum from July 1, 2024"

As everybody knows, membership fees for each financial year are due prior to commencement of that financial year. If the motion passes, $40.00 will be due by each member prior to June 30th, 2024.

I encourage you to attend the June meeting.

Sue Maas,
Secretary GDAS

PASTELS WORKSHOP WITH GRACE PALEG

4-5 May 2024

MICHELANGELO'S TENDER FRIENDSHIP WITH RENAISSANCE POET VITTORIA COLONNA (1492-1547)

by Alina Cohen

Until the late 19th century, rumor had it that an Italian woman named Vittoria Colonna had served as Michelangelo's muse. They'd been involved in a passionate affair, the story went, and he'd written the love poetry to prove it. Scholars gradually began to untangle the myth and, in 1893, British Michelangelo biographer John Addington Symonds set the record straight. "The world seems unable to take interest in a man unless it can contrive to discover a love-affair in his career," he chided. "Romancers and legend-makers have, therefore, forced Vittoria Colonna to play the role of Juliet in Michelangelo's life drama."

[...] For her part, Colonna impacted Michelangelo's life in far more significant ways than sitting for a portrait or sharing his bed. A celebrated poet, she influenced his ideas about religion, patronized his work, and served as one of his closest confidantes.

Kara Lysandra Ross wrote Michelangelo "The Poetry and the man" and says his poetry allows us not only to explore the connection between poetry and the visual arts ... but also Michelangelo as a man.

The Artist & His Work

*How can it be, lady, which all men learn
By long experience? Shapes that seem alive,
Wrought in hard mountain marble will survive
Their maker, whom the years to dust return!
Thus to effect cause yields. Art hath her turn,
And triumph over nature. I who strive
With sculpture know this well: her wonders live
In spite of time and death, those tyrants stern.
So I can give long life to both of us
In either way, by colour or by stone,
Making the semblance of thy face and mine
Centuries hence when both are buried, thus
Thy beauty and my sadness shall be shown.
And men shall say, "For her t'was wise to pine."*

Michaelangelo to Vittoria Colonna 1540

This quote was brought to our attention by Michael Sherriff. Thank you!
